SECTION C – DECLARATION

All school contacts must complete the following

1. The school will ensure that any student actor appearing in the video has the required parent permission.
2. The school will ensure that the video is vetted to confirm that it contains nothing illegal or inappropriate.
3. The school will ensure that each team obtains a free creative license for their video. (For information on how to do this online please see <https://creativecommons.org/>).
4. The school will ensure that each video is the original work created by the students and that the videos have not been entered in any other competitions.
5. The school will ensure that each video has audio and video and is correctly acknowledged with a title, credits, school name and year of production.
6. The school understands that the videos will be seen by the public and that AMSI may use the videos on their website for promotional purposes.
