

PREVENT CRYPTO FROM CRASHING

An illustration showing two stylized figures, a man on the left and a woman on the right, in a futuristic, dark blue environment. They are both reaching up to catch large, glowing yellow Bitcoin coins that are falling from the top. The coins are depicted as large, circular discs with the Bitcoin symbol. The background features a grid pattern and some faint, glowing elements, suggesting a digital or data space. The overall tone is one of urgency and action.
